MILLIE JAMES, THE HIT OF "LOVERS' LANE."

Millie James in the role of Simplicity Johnson has made the hit of Clyde Pritchard's pastoral drama "Lovers' Lane." Miss James is the daughter of Louis James, the stage-drum, and it is therefore not surprising that she should be possessed of histronic ability. It is predicted that in the near future Miss James will share the delight of seeing her name exploited in enormous type as the heroine and star of a specially prepared vehicle.

The number and influence of professional clubs became much in 1851 that the national association was formed, and it was decided to adopt a uniform set of rules. The new by-laws of the national association were adopted at the meeting of the Atlantic club in New York on March 17 of that year, and cut loose from the national association. They also provided for the adoption of a code of rules. A third by-law was adopted, and it was decided that each club should have a committee of three to meet the bases and hearing the appeal directly to them.

ATLANTIC BUCKET SHOPS.

The communists resolutions which had been adopted before noon made a prompt reaction at the adjournment reconvening the meeting of a resolution desiring that the Atlantic grain trade should be discontinued being derogatory to legitimate business and urging the congress to petition to place a heavy tax on bucket shop; that they be disengaged in the same manner that congressional action was taken in 1861.

The resolution seemed to go over until

DIED IN CHICAGO.

Remains of Dennis Sullivan Will Be Brought to Decatur.

Dennis Sullivan, aged 44 years, died at his home in Chicago on Monday, June 10.

His death was due to rheumatism and the grippe. He was formerly a resident of Decatur and was a conductor on the Wabash. He went to Chicago in 1883 and since that time has been working out of that city on railroads and at other times conducting a saloon. He is survived by his father and five brothers, James C.

John, Edward and Charles Sullivan, all of Decatur; William J. Sullivan of Butte

Mout, and two sisters, Mrs. John Newham of Decatur and Mrs. C. R. Riley of Chicago. Undertaker James Moran went to Chicago yesterday to take charge of the remains and will arrive in this city this morning.

The hour of the funeral has not yet been announced.

PHILLIPS FAILED.

It had been expected that George

Phillips, the corn king, would be present at the marriage a short space. During the marriage from Mr. Phillips saying that he was ill under the care of a physician and would be unable to reach the city. He mailed a paper which will be read before the convention today.

COSTELLO AND PHILLIPS.

A slight opposition to Thomas Costello was met among the members in view that a Chicago paper had recently attacked Mr. Costello, claiming that he is a member of the firm of Crook & Costello's association, siding with the May corn deal. Mr. Costello explained to the members of the association his position in the market and it was generally satisfactory to them and the belief that had caused a little coolness among some of the dealers.

Mr. Costello was asked about his connection with the May corn deal and said:

"As an officer of the association I had nothing to do with the Phillips deal. Indeed, and as a member of a firm which had an interest in the deal, I took a training trip.

Drinks For Grain Dealers.

A leading thirsty parlor, which has been the headquarters for the Grains Dealers when in need of liquid grain, at their previous meetings, has the following signs posted at various points around the "pods fountain": "Philippe Fizzes," "Coral

Cocktail," "Wheat Pit Punch," "Jack's

Delight" and others. The popular con-coctails amongst the others is "Oulter's Pearls." It originated in Toledo, where it outdoes the gin ricky in grain circles.

Going to Sea.

Frank Dorwin, Jr., who recently returned to the United States navy, has been notified to report at Chicago Saturday in readiness to go to Newport News to go to a training ship.

At a Premium.

The regular run of hotel business has been better in the city of Decatur during the last six months than ever before, and when the grills were swimming into the city Monday and Tuesday to attend the state meeting there were not rooms enough to accommodate them. Last night oats were actually at a premium at all of the up-town hotels.

Book Their Color.

Divers in the clear waters of the tropwhen frightened do not all dart to the same direction, but that each different kind takes shelter in that portion of the of the fish.

PROSPECT FOR OIL

Macon County Men Are Interested in the Oil Lands of Louisiana.

ARE GETTING READY TO BORE

They Have Two Thousand Acres in Fee Simple and Three Times That Much Land Leased.

John P. Paris of Niantic is not a boomer, but he is willing to venture on what seems to be a reasonably good chance.

Some time ago he invested in rice land in Louisiana. Then came the oil excitement and with some friends he secured options on lands which were considered good for prospecting and bought outright other lands. The companies in which he is interested now have title to fee simple nearly 2000 acres and leases on 0000 acres.

Mr. Paris came home yesterday from Louisiana where he has been for the last thirty days. He will remain at his home in Niantic for a week and will return to Louisiana. The company has commenced the work of creating a derrick on some of the oil land and within ten days that will be completed. It is likely that within thirty days the work of boring for oil will commence.

"The gang that rode into Minnesota did not plan any particular robbery. It was a sort of bandits' cutting party. They were better at holding up stagecoaches and railroad trains. But, to answer your question, they did not plan any particular robbery. They rode into Minnesota to get gold and silver and to get rich."

"The Youngers were the brains of the party. They were always men of good presence. Hob was as handsome as any well trained athlete. He always had presented women favorably. Jim was more reserved, but he could join in any church or social gathering.

"The Youngers did not talk much, but they were always good company to be around.
